

Big Box Beauties

Think inside the box when planning for your container displays for spring. Our boxed tree collection showcases a variety of specialty ornamental trees in cedar boxes of enduring beauty. Capture shoppers' attention by staging them at the front of the garden center. Create instant patio gardens by tucking blooming annuals and perennials around the tree trunks.

One large boxed specimen can serve as a merchandising tool for smaller trees of the same cultivar by grouping the "chicks" around the specimen "mother hen." The little trees will sell quickly to gardeners on a budget when they see an example of the tree grown up.
