Platanus x acerifolia 'Columbia'

Columbia Planetree

Height: 50' | Spread: 40' | Zone: 6

Shape: Broadly pyramidal to rounded

Foliage: Medium green

Fall Color: Yellow-brown

Attractive, deeply cut leaves resemble those of the Oriental Plane and give this large shade tree a bold texture and striking outline. Selected and introduced by the U.S. National Arboretum for high resistance to anthracnose.