

Princeton Elm

Ulmus americana 'Princeton'

Zone: 4
Height: 65'
Spread: 50'
Shape: Upright vase
Foliage: Dark green
Fall Color: Yellow

DISEASE TOLERANCE:
Dutch elm disease

Originally selected in 1922 by William Flemer for its dense symmetrical upright form and dark green foliage, it has since proven to be one of the best American Elms for resisting Dutch Elm Disease.

J. FRANK
SCHMIDT & SON CO.

P.O. Box 189 • Boring OR 97009
503-663-4128 • Fax 503-663-2121
Toll-Free 1-800-825-8202
www.jfschmidt.com